| Professional Summary  | I have been employed at the Z. Smith Reynolds Library at Wake Forest University from January 1994 to the present. In addition to my work experience detailed below, I have served with several committees and organizations on an internal and external basis that have contributed to the library and its mission of service. I shortly complete the coursework for my master's degree in library and information science. As a professional librarian, I intend to continue my contributions toward the goals of the library at my institution and beyond. |                            |
